

INDIANA STATE DAY 2011

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2011

INDIANA'S STATE BIRD – THE CARDINAL

Taught by Marsha Gomola

The stunning cardinal dominates this design. He is perched on a flowering branch watching a tiny spider. Adding sparkle to the design is the spider's web.

The class time will concentrate on completing the cardinal. Time will be spent on silk shading and padding. A suggested finishing technique will be discussed.

The class kit contains everything needed to complete the design. Students will not be asked to purchase other materials.

Please bring basic sewing kit to class.
